Notice of Judicial Vacancy
Pierce County Superior Court

On August 5, 2014, Hon. Thomas J. Felnagle announced his resignation from the bench effective October 31, 2014. Governor Jay Inslee is now seeking interested and qualified members of the Washington State Bar Association to submit applications to fill this position. The Governor's application for judicial appointment, the Uniform Judicial Evaluation Questionnaire, is accepted by several minority bar associations for evaluation purposes. It can be downloaded from the URL address below.

To be considered for this vacancy, applicants are strongly encouraged to promptly submit complete applications, along with a short resume and the Waiver and Authorization to Release Information, and schedule judicial evaluations with the statewide minority bar associations. All applications must be completed and submitted to the Governor's Office by September 5, 2014, with all judicial evaluation ratings submitted to the Governor's Office of General Counsel as soon as possible. If you have submitted an application to the General Counsel within the last year, you do not need to submit a new application; your application will be reconsidered for this vacancy. A letter of interest and supplemental materials will be accepted.
